Aloha all,

Due to a variety of circumstances, Windward Community College's "She is an Astronomer" symposium, which was originally scheduled for Tuesday, May 19, has been rescheduled for Thursday, December 3, 2009, 10:00-11:30 a.m. It will be held at the Paliku Theatre at Windward Community College.

I realize December is a long way away and you probably don't know yet who your students will be, but if you would like to reserve seats now, please let me know. I will also send out another notice to HaSTA in September.

Thanks,
Nancy
